The TUI Global Hotel Awards is an annual event that celebrates the world's most exceptional hotels, resorts, and destinations. Fushifaru Maldives has been recognised for its efforts to reduce its carbon footprint, preserve marine life, and support the local community. Fushifaru has implemented a range of green initiatives, such as a coral propagation project, the elimination of plastic bags, planting trees, and promoting sustainable cooking practices with a chef's garden.

"We are honoured to receive this award, which is a testament to our commitment to helping the environment," said Ahmed Siaar, the General Manager of Fushifaru Maldives. "We believe that tourism should be sustainable and responsible, and we are proud to be leading the way in this regard."

Note to Editors:

An idyllic island retreat with a powder soft sands, Fushifaru Maldives is a new 5-star resort located in Lhaviyani Atoll. Celebrating this year its fifth anniversary of excellent hospitality, the beautiful island of Fushifaru is a home for an unusual landscape above and below the waterline. With "Fushi", which means "island" and "Faru", which means "reef" in Dhivehi, Fushifaru is an ideal reflection of its name. If you need little more than a sensational beach and a comfortable bed, this little laid-back resort might be the one for you. Facilities are few, although there is a watersports centre, swimming pool and spa – but really it's all about the beach.
